Encyclopedia of Matildas World Cup Edition 2023

By Andrew Howe, Greg Werner

Key Sales Points:

- * The only A-Z Encyclopedia of a national women's football team in the world.
- * Companion volume to the Encyclopedia of Socceroos.
- * Released in time for the 2023 Women's World Cup.
- * Includes colour photographs, data, stats, and charts.

The companion volume to the Encyclopedia of Socceroos Centenary Edition (2022), this is a 120,000-word Encyclopedia, with players and data to end March 2023 just in time for the Women's World Cup to be held in Australia and New Zealand.

Make sure you know about the history and heroes of women's football in Australia in time for the World Cup in 2023! The Encyclopedia of Matildas World Cup Edition is fully updated and revised from the first edition in 2019 and includes data and information of the 'first Matildas' who played in the AFC Ladies Asian Cup in 1975.

The Encyclopedia of Matildas is set-out in an easy-to-follow structure, with photographs where available. It is a 'must have guide for any fan of the game and is a wonderful addition to the library of every Matildas' supporter and fan of women's football.

It gives the cap number of every player, the number of games played, goals scored, match listing and a concise biography of each player, as well as historical data on the Women's Super League and the A-League Women's competitions.

Statistician Andrew Howe has meticulously gathered and maintained records of every match played by every woman selected for the Matildas, complemented by the work of Greg Werner from The Grassroots Football Project.

Author Bio:

Growing up in the 1960s on Sydney's upper North Shore, playing with Kissing Point & Wahroonga soccer clubs, Greg's connection with the national team was cemented early on hearing sideline stories of the talented Murray Barnes, who also played with Kissing Point and would go on to captain his country. That fascination grew over the decades working as an announcer, writer, and producer in rural and Sydney radio where, amongst other things, he wrote the history of sporting events covered by 2GB at the time. Sadly, football was not amongst them.

Andrew Howe grew up in Sydney where his first sporting passion was for the Cronulla Sharks rugby league team and his academic ability was for statistics and history. Andrew attended his first national soccer league game between APIA Leichhardt and Marconi as a 19 year old in 1988 and fell in love with the round ball code there and then. An inquisitive mind led to Andrew searching for more information about the history of soccer in Australia and, not satisfied with what he found, he set about developing his own record of the sport. A Bachelor of Economics graduate from Macquarie University, Andrew's sporting statistics career then developed alongside his professional career as a demographer with the Australian Bureau of Statistics.

The History of the Women's World Cup

By Adrian Besley

The History of the Women's World Cup is a celebration of women's soccer's most prestigious tournament.

In the UK, crowds and TV viewing figures are at record levels and top players have become household names.

The Women's World Cup 2023 in Australia and New Zealand will be the biggest, most eagerly anticipated and watched competition in its history.

This book explains the growth of the women's game and the origins of the Women's World Cup.

Illustrated with fabulous colour photographs, it tells the story of each tournament, highlighting key moments, great goals and providing an in- depth account of every final.

It recalls the great teams and the legendary players who emerged, including Marta, Birgit Prinz, Megan Rapinoe and Lucy Bronze.

The book also previews in detail the 2023 World Cup. It focuses on each of the venues and features the 32 competing teams, their groups and possible route to the final.

It also picks out the potential stars of the finals, from Australia's Sam Kerr and Belgium's Tessa Wullaert to Germany's Lea Schuller and England's Ella Toone, in a comprehensive guide to the global showpiece of women's football.

In 1995, FIFA President Sepp Blatter famously declar

Green and Gold Boots

Australia's Overseas Golden Boot Winners

By Jason Goldsmith

Key Sales Points:

- * Profiles 12 Australian football players who have won Golden Boot Awards in overseas leagues.
- * Sam Kerr on cover, and the only woman in the 12.
- * Author available for interviews and signings.

From the not-so-well known to a world superstar, Australia has produced strikers who have not only excelled at home in domestic competition and playing for Australia, but also overseas.

Green and Golden Boots - Australia's overseas golden boot winners profiles the eleven men and one woman - who just happens to be the world superstar - who have topped leagues as Golden Boot winners in overseas competitions.

From Belgium to South Korea, from USA to Iceland, Norway to Japan, and Israel to Scotland, Australian goal scorers have been making their presence known in first-class domestic leagues around the world since 1989.

With a Foreword by former Socceroo captain, John Kosmina, Green and Golden Boots is a highly enjoyable and entertaining read from Jason Goldsmith giving yet another insight into Australia's rich football culture and heritage.

Author Bio:

Jason Goldsmith grew up in Ferntree Gully in the eastern suburbs of Melbourne. A massive sports fan, he was fed a diet of cricket in the summer (Ferntree Gully Cricket Club) and Aussie rules in the winter (Collingwood). His best mate from primary school, Jordan Caridi, was of Italian heritage and slowly introduced him to the world game. Jason's love for Australian football began with Ned Zelic in the spew shirt taking the Olyroos to the Barcelona Olympics in '92 and then intensified with Maradona mania, as Diego and Argentina took on the Socceroos in the final playoff for the 1994 World Cup. His best moment as a player was scoring in the Dads v Coaches win at a Thornbury United Junior Football clinic for his son. His best moment as a fan was convincing his wife to honeymoon in South Africa in 2010, taking in all the Socceroos group games. He lives in the inner north of Melbourne with his wife Sophie, children Henry, and Ivy.

Bruce Springsteen - Born to Dream
50 Years of the Boss

By Alison James

For over fifty years, Bruce Springsteen has been on top of the Rock 'n' Roll stage with 20 studio albums - from his debut Greetings from Asbury Park, N.J. to 2020's Letter to You - a life dedicated to music-making and committed social commentary song-writing.

This book examines every part of his musical career, discussing his influences and how his background shaped his song writing.

His albums have reflected deeply felt passions and concerns, from the position of the American working man in The River and Nebraska, to deep personal relationships in Tunnel of Love; from the bleak vistas in Darkness on the Edge of Town to the anger of Born in the U.S.A.

The book features rare memorabilia and images from Springsteen's career and includes features on the E Street Band who have been with him for the bulk of his recording and performing career.

Guitarists Steven Van Zandt, Nils Lofgren, and Patti Scialfa, keyboardists Danny Federici and Roy Bittan, bassist Garry Tallent, drummer Max Weinberg, and saxophonist Clarence Clemons.

Author Bio:

Alison James is a History Graduate and Showbiz Journalist who writes about royals and celebrities for the Daily Mail, the Daily Express and Yours magazine in the UK and has also written biographies of Iron Maiden, Pink Floyd, Queen and other major rock bands.

Bruce Springsteen
Song by SongBy Jack Walters*

From a skinny beach bum to a brawny headband-wearing blue-collar hero, through to an elder statesman of rock, Springsteen has been one of the most revered songwriters of his and succeeding generations for half a century. Throughout the decades, his anthemic tracks of personal and political strife have chronicled life in America, providing listeners with character-driven narratives that can be read as short stories of lives they live, lived, or have seen first-hand. After getting a recording contract with Columbia Records aged twenty-two, Springsteen wrote and recorded a string of critically acclaimed albums, including Born to Run, which brought him a wider audience, before becoming a superstar with the release of 1984's Born in the U.S.A. In the twenty-first century, Springsteen continues to release landmark albums such as The Rising and Wrecking Ball and, with the stalwart support of the E Street Band, still performs in sold-out stadiums worldwide, with concerts routinely lasting for over three hours. This volume explores Springsteen's discography in detail, examining his worldwide hits alongside his lesser known but equally moving tracks.

Shirley's Story

A Tale of Strength, Courage, and Hope

By Emily Eklund Power

Key Sales Points:

- * The story from Shirley Singh about the murder of three of her children, and death of her fourth, in her own words as told to Emily Eklund Power.
- * A true crime story that took a decade to bring the murderer to justice.
- * Also based on accounts from police, detectives, and Court records.

From the oppressed shores of India to a racially charged Fiji, her mother's death at her birth, early adoption, marital abuse, military takeover, and move to Australia, Shirley had already overcome a life of adversity when she was subjected to a nightmare no mother should endure.

On April 22, 2003, three of Shirley's children, Neelma, Kunal, and Sidhi, were found murdered, submerged in the spa bath of their home in an affluent Australian suburb. In a crime that gripped the nation – and led to a five-and-a-half-year investigation involving more than 1,500 lines of inquiry, 750 witness statements, 490 exhibits, the elimination of 180 DNA profiles, and the collection of 10,000-foot impressions, Shirley and her husband, Vijay, faced accusations of domestic violence, molestation, affairs, prostitution, and bad business deals.

Strong, sassy, passionate, and loving, Shirley depended on her love for her children, her faith in God, and her decision to keep a 'clean state of mind' to overcome alcohol and substance abuse while battling mental illness to help catch the killer.

After a 95-day committal hearing and 80-day criminal trial – the longest in Queensland legal history – a Supreme Court jury deliberated for four days before finding Massimo 'Max' Sica guilty of murdering Shirley's three children. When her only surviving child, Archana, died of a brain aneurysm in February 2020, Shirley was once again forced to dig deep, finding strength in memories captured over 43 years. This is Shirley's Story, a tale of strength, courage and hope as told to Emily Eklund Power.

Author Bio:

Emily Eklund Power is a writer, media, and communications professional with a passion for news and current affairs. A former journalist for News Limited, Bauer Media Group and Hearst, her work has been published in newspapers and magazines nationally and internationally. She has led Queensland Government communications and issues management in disaster recovery and managed national and international press for the Gold Coast 2018 Commonwealth Games. She now oversees communications and stakeholder relations for Australia's largest construction company. Emily enjoys telling people's stories with conviction and evoking emotion through words. Shirley's Story is her first book.

SALAD DAZE

WAYNE HUSSEY

Salad Daze

By Wayne Hussey

Best known as the divisive but iconic front man of The Mission and a poster boy for the-then fledgling gothic scene of the 80s, Wayne Hussey has been making music since he was inspired to pick up a guitar by his childhood hero, Marc Bolan. As he began making his name in music with The Invisible Girls, Dead Or Alive and The Sisters Of Mercy, Wayne was at first seduced and then ultimately corrupted, swapping the repression of his religious upbringing for its polar opposite: a lifestyle of total hedonism. From his early days raised as a Mormon to being schooled in gender bending by Pete Burns, from his move to Liverpool in the late Seventies to his remaining fanaticism with Liverpool FC, Salad Daze is an all-encompassing account of Wayne's personal and musical journey up until the formation of The Mission.

In Search of a Prophet
A Spiritual Journey with Kahlil Gibran

By Paul-Gordon Chandler, Michael Curry

"A profound spiritual exploration into the life and work of the beloved poet Kahlil Gibran, a much-needed guide for our times." -Reza Aslan, author of Zealot. In Search of a Prophet is a fascinating journey through the spiritual life of Kahlil Gibran, the great Lebanese poet and author of The Prophet, a book originally published in 1923 that has sold over 10 million copies and been translated into dozens of languages. Capturing our imaginations and enriching our spirits, Paul-Gordon Chandler explores this beloved writer and artist, a celebrated mystic who sought to build bridges and tear down walls and who remains a cultural icon among all people of goodwill. In Search of a Prophet is not a traditional biography but a compelling spiritual journey through Gibran's writings, art, and the places he lived. From Gibran's birthplace village high in the snowy mountains of Lebanon, Chandler leads us through his emigration to Boston, art training in Paris, career in New York, and to the far-reaching places of influence his writings and art have travelled, alerting readers of Gibran's continuing relevance for today. This paperback edition, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the publication of The Prophet, includes a foreword by The Most Rev. Bishop Michael Curry, former presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church, as well as a new preface by the author.

Pressure Play

By Neil McDonald

Having you ever been tortured at the chessboard? If so, then you have probably been a victim of pressure play. Elite players are brilliant exponents of pressure play. In situations where they have either a tiny advantage or no advantage at all they are highly adept at constantly setting problems for their unfortunate opponents. The position on the board may appear lifeless but they can probe and find plans and regroupings that will constantly ask their opponents difficult questions. These can be countered only by continual alert and accurate defence and we all know how difficult and wearing that can be. The arch exponent of pressure play is world champion Magnus Carlsen. Carlsen is superb in this area of the game and consistently defeats world class opposition from simplified positions where he has no advantage whatsoever. How does he do it?

Great American Golf Stories

By Jeff Silverman

Since the day several hundred years ago that a Scottish shepherd first struck a rock with a shillelagh, perhaps no single athletic pursuit has brought man more joy and frustration, more fulfillment and utter despair, than the game of golf.

It has been said by many that it is a microcosm of life itself—a beautiful game which tests the mind, body, and spirit.

And as a testament to that, there is no shortage of inspired writing on the topic, as golf has long caught the interest and imagination of some of the world’s finest and most celebrated writers.

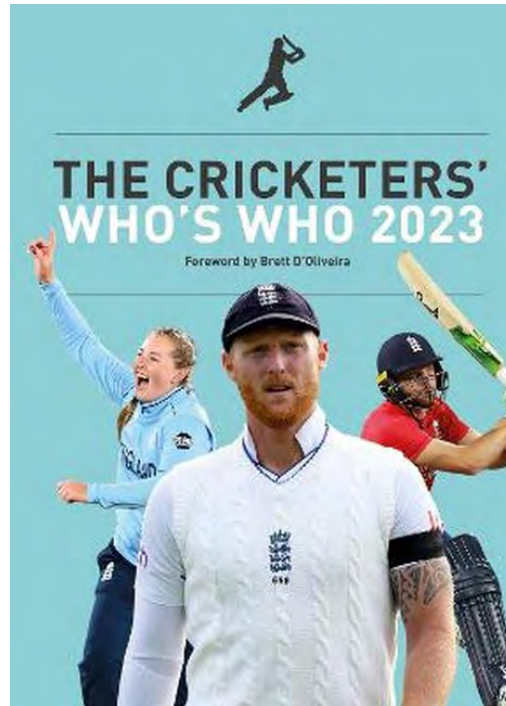

In Great American Golf Stories, editor Jeff Silverman collects some of the best classic writings, both fact and realistic fiction, that reflect the rich history, tradition, agony, and ecstasy of one of our most enduring and endearing pastimes.

By Brett d'Oliveira

The 44th edition of The Cricketers' Who's Who tells you all you need to know about every player from all 18 counties and includes an expanded women's section to take in the growing number of professional female cricketers as well as the England Women squad.

Close to 500 players have answered questions ranging from the greatest performance they have ever witnessed to their lives away from cricket, giving readers an exclusive insight into everyone who will be competing this summer. Detailed career statistics are included for each player, plus there is a round-up of the 2022 season, including tables, averages, and MVPs.

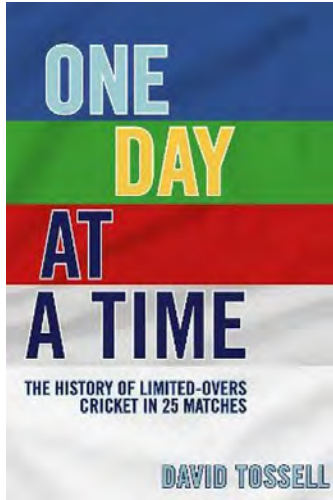

There are profiles of all the head coaches, a look at how each county is shaping up for the new season, and fixture lists for the England men's and women's teams. Plus, Worcestershire captain Brett D'Oliveira reflects on his own unique path into the game and speculates on how Bazball is impacting county cricket.

Get Your Tits Out for the Lads

By Sally Freedman

"Get Your Tits Out for the Lads" is the story of one woman's journey into the masculine and rather enigmatic world of football. Since an early age, Sally Freedman dreamt of working in football and finally landed her dream role as protocol manager for the 2015 AFC Asian Cup in Australia. After the conclusion of the tournament, Sally joined Melbourne City Football Club as head of fan engagement. With a degree in Psychology and a Master's in business specialising in sport management, coupled with an impressive sport focused vocational history, Sally thought she was reasonably well-prepared to launch a career in football. If you want to laugh out loud, cry and say 'wow' more than once, this story will give you that and more! It's the perfect book for those who would like a real insight into what it's like to be an intelligent, young woman working in a male dominated world.

Hear Us Roar

By Bonita Mersiades

Hear Us Roar is a series of long-form articles or short stories submitted as part of the Emerging Women Writers initiative of the 2023 Football Writers' Festival. Emerging women writers from around the world were invited to submit an article by the end of January 2023, with up to 20 being published in the anthology, and up to three entrants being invited to attend the festival. The judging panel comprises women and men from Argentina, Australia, Egypt, England, Nigeria, and Scotland. Further information on the initiative, including the articles to be published, will be announced by the Football Writers' Festival by the middle of May. For further information, check out the Football Writers' Festival site. Other than a payment to each of the individual contributors, the proceeds of this book will be given to the Literacy for Life Foundation and Future4Nepal.

Saving Sun Bears

One man's quest to save a species

By Sarah Pye

Adult sun bears are poached for body parts which are thought to have medicinal properties. Orphaned cubs are kept illegally as pets. Natural habitat is disappearing fast. In this inspirational story, Malaysian ecologist Dr Wong Siew Te, or 'papa bear', tries to save the 'forgotten bear' from extinction. His quest takes him around the world, and in 2017 he is acknowledged as a CNN Wildlife Hero-proving one person can make a difference. Australian author Dr Sarah Pye takes readers on a journey of discovery, introducing individual sun bears she has come to know: Natalie, who learns to survive without her mother; Bongkud, who is struck by lightning; Gutuk, who is too scared to go outside; and Debbie, who grabs her chance at freedom. Saving Sun Bears is Wong's story-and theirs.

Active Birth
The History and Philosophy of a Revolution

Pioneering birth educator and author Janet Balaskas founded the Active Birth Movement in the 1980s.

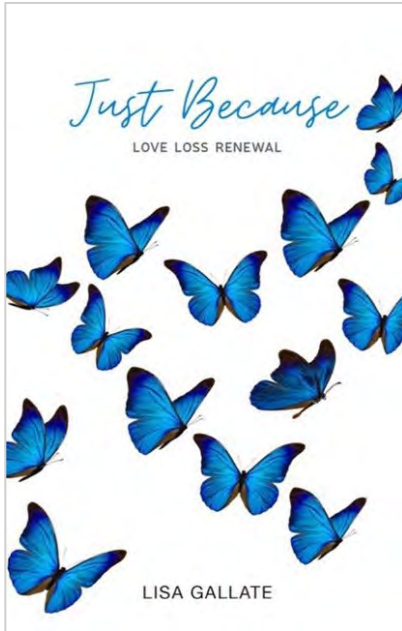

Her ideas - based on the core principle that women should take ownership of their bodies during birth and be free to assume upright positions in labour - have transformed birth for women and their birth companions across the world.

In this inspiring memoir, illustrated with beautiful birth images taken by photographer Anthea Sieveking over two decades, Janet explains the essential philosophy of her approach and how the Active Birth Movement has grown and helped generations of mothers to prepare for birth, by honouring the importance of the beginning of life and empowering them to confidently trust and follow their instincts.

Janet Balaskas is the founder of Active Birth. Her innovative ideas have inspired parents and birth professionals worldwide. Obstetricians and midwives have a high regard for her work, and many have adopted her methods. She began her work as a pioneering birth educator and author in the late 1970s and founded the Active Birth Movement in the 1980s. To this day Janet is a leading voice in the global campaign to transform birthing practices. The core work she does with parents and professionals, is now available online through live streaming.

Just Because
Love Loss Renewal

By Lisa Gallate

Key Sales Points:

- * A memoir that explores a topic not often discussed or written about but experienced by all – grief.
- * After three unexpected and premature deaths in her family, Lisa is forced to examine the relationship between love, loss and how to pick yourself up and keep going with the everyday things – let alone approach the point of ‘renewal’.

The life changing moment when Lisa’s 21-year-old sister Zoie, and Zoies 26-year-old partner James, died in a shocking car accident, is now memorialised by a beautiful oak tree. But Lisa then lost her 31-year-old husband Andrew to suicide, and her 32-year-old younger brother Justin to brain cancer. Faced with compounded grief from the untimely death of loved ones as well as a myriad of other losses, Lisa embarked on a journey of self-healing and renewal. Just Because acts as a measure of wisdom about the often unspoken but universal topics of loss and grief, depression, suicide, miscarriage, Alzheimers Disease, and the loss of a loved one to COVID-19. These candid pages offer comfort, warmth, honesty, hope and humour, as well as strategies for healing in the belief that loss and grief change your life, but they do not define you.

The Waters Between Us
A Boy, a Father, Outdoor Misadventures, and the Healing Power of Nature

By Michael J. Tougias

Untamed. Unsupervised. Uncontrolled. Boyhood in the 1960s and '70s was a time for exploration and mischief. Author Michael Tougias found more than his share of misadventures in the woods and on the water: some life-threatening but others innocently hilarious. Over time - and after reading a multitude of adventure books -- these experiences took shape in his quest to be a mountain man, owning a cabin in the forest and living off the land. Part of that dream would come true, but only after a family tragedy that shook his world and forced changes in his life. This is also a story of a complex and strained relationship between father and son, the efforts at understanding, and ultimately respect and devotion. In The Waters Between Us Tougias channels Bryson's "A Walk in the Woods" to mix laugh out loud humour with insight into the natural world through the eyes of a curious boy. Tougias is a New York Times Bestselling author and co-author of 31 books, including There's A Porcupine In My Outhouse (Winner of the Independent Publishers "Best Nature Book of the Year") and The Finest Hours (inspiration for a 2016 Disney movie). He has received many writing awards.

Julia Child Rules
Lessons On Savoring Life

By Karen Karbo

Many of us have dog-eared copies of Mastering the Art of French Cooking in our kitchens or fondly remember watching episodes of The French Chef, but what was behind the enormous appeal of this ungainly, unlikely woman, who became a superstar in midlife and changed our approach to food and cooking forever?

In the spirit of The Gospel According to Coco Chanel and How Georgia Became O'Keeffe, Julia Child Rules dissects the life of the sunny, unpretentious chef, author, cooking show star, and bon vivant, with an eye towards learning how we, too, can savour life. With her characteristic wit and flair, Karen Karbo takes us for a spin through Julia's life: from her idyllic childhood in California to her confusing young adulthood in New York; her years working for the OSS in Sri Lanka; her world class love affairs with Paris and Paul Child; and her decades as Americas beloved French chef. Karbo weaves in her own personal experiences and stops for important life lessons along the way: how to live by your whims, make the world your oyster, live happily married, work hard, and enjoy a life of full immersion.

And Other Lessons in the Spiritual Wisdom of Cats

By Jon M. Sweeney

As a spiritual pilgrim for more than half a century, Jon Sweeney has practiced with teachers of many religious traditions. He's gone looking for wisdom, beauty, and truth wherever it can be found.

But recently he's found himself learning closer to home--from the teacher-cats he lives with. What he discovered is that our greatest spiritual teachers are at our feet. Literally. They are the cats we love and treasure. Nearly 60 million cats live in US households today.

These feline teachers have much to offer us about living in the present, loving unconditionally, approaching life with a sense of playfulness, and trusting others, all the while being independent spirits.

Jon Sweeney, beloved scholar and author of The Pope's Cat and numerous books about Saint Francis, offers a beautifully illustrated, playful, gentle, informed meditation on the many spiritual truths and practices our feline companions provide if we but pause and pay attention.

The Spirituality of Grief
Ten Practices for Those Who Remain

By Fran Tilton Shelton

Grief is all-consuming. Shattering. After the death of a loved one, we ask questions about the meaning of life, the whys of death, and how to carry our sorrow. The Spirituality of Grief honours the complex nature of grief and offers simple comfort: we are not alone, and there is no one right way to grieve. Author Fran Tilton Shelton, a spiritual director and cofounder of the non-profit Faith & Grief, walks us through the questions that gather in the wake of a loved one's death: Why are we exhausted? What do we do with guilt? How do we take care of ourselves? And when will we get over our grief? Each chapter offers a spiritual practice, emerging from a variety of religious traditions, for those who remain. From breath prayers and nature walks to the examen and sacred reading, Shelton guides readers through each spiritual practice and its potential for sustaining hope and connecting us to God.

All who love will eventually grieve. Universal and, shared and solitary, grief rearranges every aspect of life. But by bringing the resources of spirituality to bear on our losses, we can carry our sorrows rather than silence them. Within the rhythms of spiritual practices, we find what we need to make it through the week, the day, the hour.

Darwin: Survival of a City, The 1890s

By Derek Pugh

Key Sales Points:

* 3rd in a series on 19th century Top End settlement history - after 1870s and 1880s.

Derek Pugh brings the Darwin of the 1890s alive. (Hon Sally Thomas AC). In the 1890s, Darwin was in the doldrums. The town, then known as Palmerston, was succumbing to the worldwide depression with mining, pastoralism, and agriculture suffered from downturn, disease, and distance.

The gold price plummeted and Redwater disease struck cattle - many pastoral operations closed. This is the story of South Australia's Top End settlement in the last decade of the nineteenth century.

It was a tough time, and the South Australian Government had had enough of their 'white elephant'. When Palmerston blew away in the Great Hurricane of 1897, many called for the Territory's return to the British Colonial Government. But the Territory, as ever, was full of resilient and resourceful characters.

The Greatest Escape

A True American Civil War Adventure

By Douglas Miller

The Greatest Escape: A True American Civil War Adventure tells the story of the largest prison breakout in U.S. history. It took place during the Civil War, when more than 1200 Yankee officers were jammed into Libby, a special prison considered escape-proof, in the Confederate capitol of Richmond, Virginia.

A small group of men, obsessed with escape, mapped out an elaborate plan and one cold and clear night, 109 men dug their way to freedom. Freezing, starving, clad in rags, they had to still travel 40 miles to Yankee lines and safety. They were pursued by all the white people in the area, but every Black person they encountered was their friend. In every instance, slaves risked their lives to help these Yankees, and their journey was aided by a female-led Union spy network.

Since all the escapees were officers, they all could read and write well. Over 50 of them would publish riveting accounts of their adventures. This is the first book to weave together these contemporary accounts into a true-to-life narrative.

The Alpha and the Omega

How the balance on earth was lost and is now being restored

By Louisa Crisp

How can we live in alignment with the true Source of our being, finding joy in everyday life? Drawing on scores of deep memories from her many clients, Louisa Crisp shows that we can be free. By shedding negative emotions, traumas, and conditioning, we shine from the Divine essence that lives within. This inextinguishable light cannot be taken from us, yet many are choosing to live in fear and judgment, in 'separation'. The Alpha and the Omega takes us on a breath-taking journey, from the moment our cosmos began to the present day, revealing the cause of separation and the beginning of duality. The second part of the book focuses on the life of Jesus, the first person who was able to let go of his fears completely and to live in total alignment with Source. Many valuable memories are revealed from individuals who lived during that time.

Dante's Revelation

A Study of the Life and Work of Dante Alighieri

By Willem Frederik Veltman

Even after seven centuries of historical development, the core of Dante's work is probably more relevant today than ever. With his Divine Comedy, the great poet wanted to open the eyes of his contemporaries to the realities of the spiritual world and to the consequences of how we choose to live our life. He also fought for moral and social healing of society and culture and pointed to the source of all healing—the living spirit. The author did not write this book as a memorial to Dante. Rather, it is meant to show us how Dante's masterwork enables us to recognize and better understand ourselves, as well as our life choices and our personal and cultural situation.

The Luciferic Verses

The Daodejing and the Chinese Roots of Esoteric History

By Eric Cunningham

In the West today, Laozi—who lived sometime between the 6th and 4th centuries BC—is perhaps the best-known (along with Confucius) ancient Chinese philosopher, owing to numerous modern renderings of his Daodejing (or Tao Te Ching). Eric Cunningham relates the substance of Laozi's classic work to modern philosophers and thinkers—especially Rudolf Steiner and his esoteric cosmology and philosophy, drawing significant and surprising parallels and contrasts about Steiner's modern path of inner development and to aspects of popular culture. In doing so, he also sheds light on the evolution of consciousness and the universality of Laozi's wisdom of more than two millennia ago. Cunningham combines a new translation of the Chinese classic Daodejing with a unique interpretation of the Dao for today, innovatively employing perspectives of Rudolf Steiner's Anthroposophy interwoven with esoteric world history.

Key Sales Points:

- * An engaging story that explores the themes of friendship, kindness, empathy, and compassion.
- * Ignites discussion about talents and skills, and that sometimes, it just takes time to discover what we are good at.
- * Explores the beauty of diversity — that we are all different, and we each have something to contribute.
- * Introduces readers to fun and interesting facts about bees.

Little Pip loves bee school, but she is sad that she doesn’t seem to have any special talent. Her waggle dance isn’t waggly enough, her buzz is too quiet and even little Alfie can fly faster than she can!

When Pip’s teacher announces a honey-making competition, Pip wonders whether honey-making could be her special skill. But when her honey goes missing, she makes a surprising discovery about herself.

Green Eyes

Book 3 - Wonderland Tales

By Tang Tang, Zhang Wangzhe

Olive Green, White Cabbage, and Yellow Flower meet a village of fish in Wonderland. These are no normal fish - the fish here can fly, walk, run, jump, climb trees, and even drill holes. However, these magical fish have a hidden secret. Can the three friends and a special fish, Green Eyes, solve the village's thousand-year-old mystery?

Wonderland Tales tells mythical stories of a little girl, a goat, and a hen as they wander through Wonderland, meeting enchanting creatures and creating extraordinary legends.

Gender Heroes

By Jessica Kingsley Publishers

Prepare to meet the gender trailblazers of past and present - who dress and express themselves however they choose! Featuring icons from across art, sports, fashion, music, politics, civil rights and the media, this vibrantly illustrated book introduces children age 5+ to transgender, non-binary and genderqueer role-models who dare to be different - and are conquering the world as they go. Packed with the triumphant tales of 25 gender heroes - including Laverne Cox, Elliott Page, Marsha P. Johnson, Gavin Grimm and Alok Vaid-Menon, as well as a glossary of key terms, this is an inspirational introduction for kids and educators alike - and a timely reminder that not all heroes wear capes.

The Mindful Magician and the Trip to Feelings Town

By Lauren Brukner

We are going to take a trip to a very special town called Feelings Town. In this town there are kids who need our help because they are having different super-strong feelings. Do you ever feel angry, sad, or worried, get startled by big sounds, or not realise how hungry you are? Don't worry, the Mindful Magician is here to help! In this book you'll learn fun tricks that will ZAP those feelings away. If we use them the right way, we can save the day for kids who need our help! And the best bit is once you've learned those powers, you will be able to use them yourself anytime you feel those feelings! This illustrated picture book shows children aged 5+ different self-regulation strategies for dealing with strong emotions and overwhelming sensory experiences, and how to understand interoceptive senses.

Out A Parent's Guide to Supporting Your LGBTQIA+ Kid Through Coming Out and Beyond

By John Sovec

The coming out process for LGBTQIA+ adolescents can be a terrifying moment, not only for themselves, but also for their family and friends. When intense emotions are running the gamut of concern, shock, joy or even anger and acceptance, it can be tricky to process how you feel while giving your child the support they need. Offering essential guidance and advice, this book is here to help you with chapters that explore LGBTQIA+ terminology, understanding the coming out process, effective communication strategies, talking to your LGBTQIA+ kid about sex, the parents' process of acceptance, and the family coming out process. Importantly, this guide also covers a wide range of lesser-known orientations such as pansexuality and asexuality.
